

Gateway Park Trail

2500 Jim Miller Road

General Description

Numerous natural trails meander through limestone bluffs overlooking the Great Trinity Forest. The area used to be an American Indian campground where lookouts were posted on the natural limestone bluffs. The trails meander up and down the cliffs. This land has been blessed by the Commanche Indians and it is considered sacred Indian ground.

Directions to Trailhead from Downtown Dallas

Take I-30 east; exit Jim Miller Road. Turn right and go approximately 3 miles.

Difficulty ..... moderate to difficult

Best time of year to hike ..... year round

Length ..... many trails/1– 3 miles

Mapsco ..... 48 W

Distance to trailhead from Downtown Dallas ..... 8 miles